

THE MOSHERS IN NEW ZEALAND

Taking the soul-saving Gospel to a lost and dying world

Keep seeking the things above!

It seems social media is currently saturated with people's disgust of what's going on in the world today. It is natural for a Christian to feel out of place in this world. Remember, brethren, our job is not to complain about the kingdoms of this world, but it is to sow the seed of the kingdom of God.

WORKING VISITORS

We have really enjoyed the visits from three Christian workers. Cindy Tatum, who has stayed the longest, has worked diligently to build up the women of the church. Her schedule was jam-packed with Bible studies every day. She was also busy teaching non-Christians about Jesus.

Betty Choate was with us for just a few days. But while she was here, she was busy in fellowship and teaching. She conducted several ladies events throughout the nation, including one in Wellington, where she spoke on "Jesus Christ the Eternal Sacrifice."

Butch Snyder, an elder for the Chalmette, LA, church, was with us for five days. While he was here, he surveyed the work, and was hopefully encouraged. He also helped with some door-knocking, where he and I were able to set up a Bible study. My family enjoyed his company and his greetings from the lovely Christians in New Orleans.

ONGOING STUDIES

We began two new Bible studies in the past month. Both of the students are fairly busy with school, and it is difficult to set study times. Hopefully they will remain zealous for the word and make a way to continue the studies.

I have resumed my studies with Nuha. We have enjoyed studies for the last three weeks. Her heart is on fire for the word. I pray her schedule allows us to keep the studies going.

Jade's daughter has been sick for the last couple of weeks, but our studies will resume next week. She is open to whatever the word teaches, which is very encouraging.

CAMPAIGN PREPARATIONS

We are busy with our list of things to get done before the campaigners arrive. They will be here in less than two weeks, Lord willing. We are excited about the work we have planned for them. I expect next month's newsletter will be a few days late, so I can report on the entire campaign. Please pray for their travel and effective work once they get here.

CONCLUSION

As always, we recognise God is working through you. Without your love and support, we could not be here. Thank you. We love you with the love of the Lord. Keep serving Him.
